

Article 1°

- Any club organizing a National or International Salon, can, whatever its nationality, get a « Quality Label ». No dues will be required from ISF members, otherwise file fees will be exigible.

The label will on no account be granted to a Salon that, by its nature, calendar or all other disposition, might go against ISF's policy or that could be detrimental to its smooth working and/or development.

Article 2

- For a National Exhibition, a patronage by the National Federation must have been usually granted. A patronage by FIAP and/or by PSA is usually necessary for an International Exhibition.

Article 3

-, The said Salon must have been held previously, except if the organizers are already well known in the field of exhibition organization. The previous event must have entirely complied with the planned schedule and must not have been the object of justified claims from the participants.

The applicant is required to send a copy of the regulations of the Salon together with the application. Should any term of the regulations not comply with the current specifications, uses or laws, the « Label » will be deferred until they are found in accordance with these specifications.

Article 4

– Respecting the authors' legal rights -- All artworks must be returned to their authors on time as indicated in the Salon calendar. No article in the regulations can stipulate the obligation to transfer certain artworks to the organizers. If the latter wish to acquire a number of artworks, they will be required to negotiate directly with the authors.

Article 5

– Groups of exhibitions such as « Circuits » can be granted an «ISF Label» in the same conditions as single Salons. If the Label is granted, every single Exhibition will get the advantages of the « ISF Label ».

Article 6

– Any salon with an ISF label is expected to comply with the national or international schedules as set by FIAP or PSA .

Article 7

- The judges of such Salons must be composed of members known for their photographic expertise. Any pre-selection before the judgement is forbidden. Both the organizers and the judges are not allowed to take part in the salon they organize or judge. Moreover the clubs which organize the events cannot claim any award for the other members who might participate. Notification cards should mention at least the minimum acceptance score, minimum and maximum scores in the section, and the total score obtained by each artwork – mentioning each judge's mark is not compulsory but recommended.

Article 8

– The points obtained by an ISF member in an International Exhibition with « ISF Label», count double for the granting of “ISF Honours”.

Article 9

– All those exhibitions which are granted an «ISF Label» receive a Medal and two ISF Diplomas to serve as awards.

Article 10

- Applications for Labels must be done on the forms provided for this use. The requested proceedings will have to be complied with.

Article 11

- The ISF Logo -- whose model will be provided -- together with the « ISF Label » reference, followed by the assigned number, (N°001/2008 for example) will have to appear on the first page of the « Entry Form ».

An advertisement in favour of ISF as well as the logo and the number of the « Label » must be published in the catalogue. Publishing a catalogue or a CDrom is compulsory. Every participating author, either admitted or not, will receive a copy free of charge. The works of authors of the organizing country published in the catalogue should on no account exceed 40%. Only salons with an ISF label are allowed to use the ISF logo.

Article 12

– Organizers are required to take the greatest care of the works which they have been entrusted with. They cannot be held responsible for stealing, destroying or any damage occurring during transport (both ways) between the authors and the organizers but they are responsible for the works that they keep from the moment of their arrival until the moment they are sent back. Hence, works must be insured by the organizers for all the duration of the exhibition. Any article in the Regulations of the Salon claiming any lack of liability is void and inapplicable.

Article 13

- Image Sans Frontière will verify the good progress of Salons with « ISF Labels » The non-respect of all or some specifications will entail a refusal of the said « Label » for the following salon.

Any breach of specification will have to be reported to the Steering Committee which will decide on the official decision to be implemented.
